DATE: July 29, 1943

TO: Mr. Cook
FROM: Arthur Ramey
SUBJECT: Mrs. Jaderquist

I suggested to Mrs. Jaderquist that she would be the best one to look after the Colonist teaching personnel. She knows most of them pretty well and ~~is~~^{is} familiar with their problems. I am attaching a list of their summer school assignments. None of them are very heavy so if other jobs or duties come up, feel free to assign them. Miyo knows where all the records are and can take a lot of the responsibility.

The only extra-curricular activities this summer, as far as I know, are Jr. Red Cross, Hi-Y, and Scouting. In charge of Red Cross are Mrs. Norman, Miss Burton, and Mrs. Koski. Mr. Johnson has taken over my job as advisor to the Hi-Y and Janus Kurahara will conduct the Boy Scout activities in connection with his course.
